

Scholarship for Approaching the Interpretation of Early 19th Century Maroon Gulf Coast Florida

A bibliography focuses on the history and materiality for maroons in Florida during 1770s-1821 but including other relevant scholarship.
Created for the 2015-16 Florida Humanities Council funded Tragedy and Survival: Bicentennial of the Southward Movement of Black Seminoles on Florida's Gulf Coast
Uzi Baram, Principal Investigator

Please note: this list does not include the scholarship on Fort Mosé or publications focused on the Second Seminole War and its aftermath. Nor does it include publications focused primarily on the Seminoles and Indigenous history for Florida.
